Chapter 6
"The Firing Squad" ✓

Auberry saves John and Ellen by another "miracle" and the Indians decide that these white wonder-workers must not be lost to the tribe and they must be united by Indian marriage. John declares to Ellen the love he has been unable to suppress, but says nothing of Grace. They effect an escape and at the military post Ellen finds her father, who has been apprised by Orme that John is engaged to a girl in Virginia. Meriwether is furious that John should be false to one girl and deceive another, and refuses to lend him money. That night Meriwether is murdered and John is found guilty. At daybreak he faces the firing squad.
